Death of Alan Mead

My father Alan Francis Mead sadly passed away on 26 October 2025 at the age of 99 years.

He wrote the book 'Kalanyot - Letters from Palestine' about his time spent in Palestine from 1945-8 and also about his military training. He attended a number of reunions with his regimental colleagues. Members of the Thames Valley Parachute Regiment were in attendance at his funeral which was held on 19 November.

PhD Research

I'm not sure how frequently this website is now visited, but on the off-chance that veterans and / or their families may see this message, I wanted to introduce myself as a PhD student from the University of Southampton, researching the experiences of young soldiers who served in either the 6th Airborne or 1st Infantry Divisions in Palestine between 1945 and 1948.

I'm currently trying to access personal papers (e.g. letters, diaries, memoirs and photographs) of British servicemen who served during the Mandate in this period, to try and help understand what they experienced when they reached Palestine and how this may have changed their views about the situation and the local people they encountered.

I realise it's not possible to say too much in this message, but if there is anyone happy to get in touch to discuss the research in more detail, please feel free to contact me on the following email - n.d.batley@soton.ac.uk.

I really appreciate you reading this note.

Thanks in advance.

Re: Death of William Watts (Wattie)

I have just read the sad news that Bill Watts has passed away - condolences to his family.

Bill and my Dad, Alan Mead, became firm friends when Bill set up this amazing historical 3 Para website. Bill had featured in a Daily Mail 'Lost & Found' article in 2008 which led to him tracing my Dad and others. My Dad contributed some of the photos from their time in the 3rd Parachute regiment in Palestine 1945-8. Bill traced around 65 members of the battalion and he organised reunions with old friends most of whom hadn't seen each other since 1948. One reunion in 2011 was attended by the late Bernard Cribbins.

My Dad had already had two books published but Bill inspired him to write his third book in 2014 after my Mum passed away. The book is called ' Kalanyot - Letters from Palestine' by Alan Mead. It was about his life as an evacuee in Northampton then his Air training and Parachute regiment training and his record of his time in Palestine taken from letters he wrote to his Grandfather and later to my Mum. Bill wrote part of the Foreword in this book.

My dad is now 98 and has been in a care home for nearly 2 years with vascular dementia and although he struggles with current day matters he still likes reading and can be easily encouraged to talk about his time in the regiment. I know he has fond memories of his dear friend Bill 'Wattie' Watts

I did meet Bill myself a few times and kept in touch with him when my Dad was unable to do so himself. I hadn't heard from Bill for a couple of years although I had sent emails and letters to him so I wondered how he had been. I remember Bill as a true gentleman - may he rest in peace.

Death of William Watts (Wattie)

It is with regret that I must announce the death of my Father William Watts (Wattie), creator of this website. He died peacefully on 8th September 2024 aged 98. His funeral is on Monday, 30th September 2024 and details can be found on the following website:

<https://william-frankjohn-watts.muchloved.com/>

Dad started this website aged 76 without any prior knowledge of website design and managed to trace many members of the 3rd Battalion Parachute Regiment with whom he had served in Palestine 1945-1948.

May he rest in peace.

Re: My grandad Robert (Jock) Brown served in 3 Para in Palestine.

Hi, my dad served in Palestine too in the 3rd Parachute Brigade between 1946-48.

I too have old photos and would love to know where they were taken. I think he was in Haifa and Tel Aviv.

I had a reply from the daughter of the chap (William Watts) who set up this site so it is at least being monitored.

I guess the are fewer and fewer paras around.

I have requested my dads service record from the MOD, at the moment records are being transferred to the National Archives which is slowing things down.

Thanks Howard

Billy's War

I have been writing a historic novel based on the stories my Dad (Bill Atherton) told me of his time in the British Army from 1942 to 46. He was involved in the invasion of Europe and then posted to Palestine. Feedback on my initial drafts from Lancaster University, where I took my MA in Creative Writing suggested that his time in Palestine was far the most interesting to a modern audience.

I have finally sent it off to the publishers and it will be available from 28th May 2023. I'd love to think it was of interest to soldiers who were there with him

WW2

I have been told by an elderly aunt that my late father, Arthur Foster originally from Bramley-Yorkshire, Wortley, nr Leeds and after WW2 lived in Burton upon Trent, served in the army as a police officer in Egypt.

Being ex Army myself I immediately thought RAMC (Red Cap) but they have no record of Arthur.

Recently came across this site and wondered if he could have served as a British soldier in Palestine Police?

I don't have his Army Number.
Any advice would be much appreciated.
Thank you.

My Uncle (Pte. Charles Carter) was a member of 3 Para in Palestine and I think that he may have worked closely with your father. Sadly Charlie died in a road accident in 1953.

While in Palestine he and an officer were trapped by a group of jews who stoned them. The officer was killed and Charlie survived with a fractured skull. I know little else but as far as I am aware Capt H was the only officer killed around the same time as Charlie was in theatre. It may have been coincidental with the execution of Dov Gruner.

Hi Alan,

I was also serving with the 3rd Battalion in Palestine during the period 1945-48 and I built this website in 2002 in the hope of tracing some of my old comrades.

If you will email me with details of any army friends which your father wishes to contact I will see if they appear in my records. Obviously I will also need to know which company he was in and when he embarked for Palestine

Uk servicemen in Palestine during 1945-48

Hi there,

I'm carrying out some research which looks at the experience's of British (police/army) personnel serving in the Palestinian between 1945-1948. I would like to make contact with any servicemen who were in Palestine and can depict what it was like to serve during this period.

I'm also interested to hear about what it was like to work as a Brit in Palestine once the Farran/Alexander Rubowitz case came to light. I understand that this is still a sensitive matter but if anyone would also be willing to discuss their experience it would be much appreciated.

Please feel free to get in touch,

Norman from Walsall sadly passed away on 9-11-2016 aged 89. After a lot of spells in hospital over the last few years he sadly succumbed to bronchial problems. Sadly missed and he would have loved to have been at Eden camp today 15-10-2016. We attended and felt honoured as his son in law and my wife his youngest daughter, to be in the company of the veterans who served. Any info would be greatly appreciated and we have lots of his photos from his time in Palestine Malta and Cyprus. Please e-mail me should you have any info. Regards Bob and Kaz.

Private William Atherton RASC

My dad was in Palestine from August 1945 to late 1946 when he was demobbed. He was a driver/mechanic in the RASC and drove a truck on a regular route between Jerusalem and Ismailia.

He was a tiny man from south Lancashire. He was very reluctant to tell me much about it and now he has gone. He flew from England on a Liberator bomber following 11 days leave between the invasion of Europe and his posting in Burma. In the end he stopped in Jerusalem after the Japanese surrendered.

I know just a little of the conditions: the heat, the disease and the flies. I am reading the history of the politics and terrorism.

I hope to write a novel about his war time experiences so any one who knew him or the circumstances at the time would be a great contact. I look forward to hearing from some one

- 3) The period of civil war between Jews and Palestinian Arabs (1947-1948)
- 4) Overall impressions of life in Palestine during that period.

Hi all, My dad John Edward Day was apparently serving in the middle East in 1946-47. His sister told me that he was in Palestine but that he never talked about it. Edward "Ted" Midani died in October 2012 and a memorial address is being prepared for a masonic lodge of which he was a member.

Ted joined A company 3rd Battalion in 1945 and went to Palestine but we think that he was serving prior to that. He was Manchester PRA branch secretary 1947-1997. Colchester claim to have no knowledge of him, although his name is listed elsewhere on this website.

It is proving difficult to obtain any information about Ted's service etc. Can anyone assist? Does anyone remember him?

Re: Ted Midani

Simon, Although it was along time ago I do remember Ted Midani. I joined B Coy 3rd Para Bn at Okehampton in July/August 1945 and he was already an established member of that Coy at that time. I remember he was with us at Larkhill and he was with us when we went to Palestine in Sept 1945. I think he left for demob the following year but as I was not a close friend I cannot give you more than that, I believe that he came from Manchester and also that he had tailoring connections. I think that he was popular but I don't think that he was in 4 platoon. Hope this small amount of info is helpful, cheers Alan hope somebody can help me, I'm trying to find any family member of the late phil turner. I think he served with 3 Para in Palestine. I only came to know this real gentleman in 1962/3 in Haig Lines Crookham where I moved to at 6 years old as my dad was in 1 Para there. I met up with the turner family and a great bond between Ian, Chris and myself started.

turner phil

I do know that he was a recruiting sgt in Northampton, I know this because he enlisted me there.

If anyone has any info please contact me.

Re: 2/3 Battalion Hockey team 1948

Hello Bill, I have tried your email but it keeps bouncing back so I am replying on this forum.

Thanks for the quick reply, my grand father Charles Upperton was ex 10th Parachute Battalion, then 2 Para after Market Garden. Whilst on 2 Para he was on the hockey team for the season 44-45 when 2 Para were the Div champions. When he was deployed to Palestine the battalion was merged with the 3rd Battalion so my assumption is he may have been part of that team.

I have attached a copy of the 2 Para Team for you to see. It was taken at Ashwell camp near RAF Cottesmore.

I will have a look at the picture of the 3 Para pic.... Thanks Bill much appreciated.

Regards

Steve

Today, in the former Atlit (Athlit) camp for illegal immigrants there is a museum dedicated to the Jewish clandestine immigration to the country.In the museum we have a computerized database that document the story of the period.

We are very interested in stories of British soldiers who served in Atlit, the detention camps in Cyprus or dealt with illegal immigrants.

Anyone know William (Bill) Morris

Looking for old pals or information on William (Bill) Morris. He served with the regiment in Palestine after being drafted from Ulster Rifles? as part of the back fill for losses due to Operation Market Garden. When speaking to him he has mentioned playing basketball, driving NCO's and officers around in his Willys Army Jeep that had an embroidered sign with my Mums name on, Betty. He also mentioned teaching others to drive on the airstrip and watching with some amusement when he unclipped the steering wheel and handing it over to the passengers!!

Also spoke about the day when the football team got ambushed and sentry duty when the Arabs would steal anything that wasn't locked down. Mentioned as well that he got promoted to Lance Corporal and was busted the same day for speeding, he was celebrating being promoted!

My Dad was born in Canning Town, London, but got bombed out and moved to Leicester with his family before joining the Army and serving on the Ack-Ack batteries on the Kent coast with his father. He then went through different Infantry regiments before joining the Para's.

If anyone remembers him any has any stories then please get in touch. When is the next veterans meeting as I would love to take him along.

Please get in touch, regards and thanks from Ted Morris.

Looking for info on father
My quest is same as many before. Belatedly nearly 20 years after my fathers death I wonder about his Palestine experience. I have his discharge certificate which indicates he was part of the Army airborne transport development centre. He was young and a private and from a parachute regiment. I have a regimental badge but cannot connect this info to battalion/ regimental histories. Will applying for his army record give me much info?
Many Thanks

Searching for: John Bishop - A coy.3 para.group

He's an Internet friend of mine, but I haven't heard from him for awhile. Is he okay? Please let me know if you'd heard from him. He once said that he lives in Leicester, England. He served with Lt. General Walsh, Sgt. Legg, and Lt. White.

John combines his love of history and poetry. Here's one of his poems:

THE BATTLE AT EL GAMIL
5/11/56

Eleven years after world war two,
airborne troops were ask anew,
parachuting down on Egyption sand,
Major Walsh plays his hand.

With Pte.Eccles marking the spot, control falls to the Majors plot,
two platoon with Coates in command,
attack a pillbox as was planned.

Clements fires a bazooka shot,
Egyption soldiers lose the plot,
hands up and out they show their face,
Binnsy marches them back to base,

Major Stevens and B coy's men,
fall amidst a snipers den,
badly wounded in the hand,
the Major stays and keeps command.

Then they attack the sewage farm,
Cpl.Woods fall, causes alarm,
with Maj.Stevens wounded again,
Captain Beale takes the rein..

C coy.attack the cemetary then,
Major Norman and his men,
call, and get air support,
to halt the danger snipers thwart,

Pte Beech with bren in hand,
dispatches a soldier in the sand,
the Egyption's bazooka failed to fire,
soldiers remember to attach that wire.

To Hms. Albion, we send good cheer.
for sending us those crates of beer,
Hms.Bulwark played their part,
to quench our thirst then depart..

Waiting for commando men,
C coy. took the cemetary then,
advanced still further to the flats,
hencforth stopping sniper attacks.

B.coy. then moved into the flats,
c.coy.then the barracks attacked,
the barracks fell with great success,
c.coy. occupied the officers mess.

A military success draws to a close,
but lets not forget those we opposed,
men on both sides were very brave,
in britains small heroes are made.

We're really keen to find someone who served during this time and who can explain what a tough posting it was.

You would need to live in the London or Home Counties area as we would like to record this on Thursday.

Hi Andrew,

Thank you for leaving a message on my website.

I suggest that you Click on OBTAINING SERVICE RECORDS - on the Index page of my website - and follow the instructions to obtain a copy of your father's Service Record from the Ministry of Defence.

This will tell you which units your father served with.

If he served with 3 Para please get in touch with me again and if you have any suitable photos, taken in Palestine during the period 1945-48 I shall be pleased to add them to my website.

I believe Geoffrey Wright (my father) was a Sergeant in the paras in Palestine. He died when I was very young and I would love to hear from anyone who knew him.

I have heard that he was severely affected by the kidnap and hanging of one of his colleagues, and know he subsequently suffered a breakdown.
